

So, you are interested in joining The Discovernavts?! That's awesome.

For someone to join, we need a Parent/Guardian to fill in the form below and mail it back to us.

Once we have received that you will then be a brand new member of our Cool Banana's DISCOVERNAUTS CLUB ... Yippee!!!

You will receive a copy of your own Bible:  As well as the first of three booklets that will help you learn about LIVING LIFE GOD'S WAY.

Then you can answer one or two questions a day or go through and do the whole book at once, its up to you! When 3 booklets are finished we will send you a CERTIFICATE. There are some more lessons to do after that if you want to carry on.

So go ahead and ask whoever it is that looks after you for permission. If they say 'Yes', get them to fill in the form below. But if they say 'No', please don't jump up and down and get all upset. Instead respect their decision - remember what we have taught you at Cool Bananas: Honour and Respect your Parents.
